

JABER SARAH ELENA

Ploiesti, Str. Aleea Libelulei nr 2.

Telephone: 0738 633 532

E mail: sarahbjaber@gmail.com

Personal profile

Education and Qualification

2016-2017: Universidad de Málaga

2015: University of Southampton

Modules include: Technical and creative writing, power and discourse, historic and politics of the Hispanic world, writing in a second language, exploring Spanish linguistics, myths of Contemporary Spain, Ethnography of Latin America, dogs care.

Skills developed include:

- think critically about how language can be used to achieve ideological objectives;
- the different international contexts in which the Spanish language is used;
- technical skills in writing in a variety of genres (get familiarized with a range of writing styles);
- understanding regarding the political, social and economic relationship between Europe and America;

2012-2015: Universidad de Málaga (South of Spain)

Degree: Spanish studies and Art.

Special awards/ Skills developed include:

- Selected to be one of the 3 recipients for the full scholarship among the 87 best young Spanish students in the country in 2012.
- Participation and activism in all kind of courses and competitions (Second place in the International philosophical competition "¿Hay una Europa de los ciudadanos?" organized by "Valle de Pielagos" Institute of Cantabria, Spain).
- Participated in different courses (public speaking skills, creative writing, Project Management, teaching Spanish, how to write in a second language...).
- Developed strong communication skills in Spanish, a strong understanding of Spanish literature (poetry, novel, theatre), art, history and linguistics.

Past (2008-2012): Colegio Nacional Jean Monnet, Ploiesti, Romania.

Skills developed include:

- Graduated with an average of 97,5% in the Spanish Baccalaureate exam and with 93% in the Romanian Baccalaureate (two Baccalaureate diplomas).
- Represented the High school in the National Olympic competition.
- Represented the Spanish theatre team in the National competition obtaining third place and recognition for best actress.
- Achieved one of the excellence scholarships (2012) awarded by the Spanish Embassy in Romania.
- Developed strong communication skills in Spanish and English.

Interests, positions of responsibility & Accomplishments

- Team leader in the Project "Good practices in Education Models in European Youth" (March 2016). Other responsibilities: Social media mentor, plan, organize, CONTROL, report with the other team leaders.
- Distinguished delegate in the 21st Session of the oldest Model United Nations Conference United Kingdom in CAMBRIDGE (November 2015) working with students from every continent except Antarctica (gained strong diplomatic and negotiation skills).
- Assistant project manager (Special Award) in recognition of the outstanding performance in leadership and organizational support in the European Programme "Social Theatre- Building a Chance for All", in West Lexham, Norwich, April, 2015.
- Youthpass for "The metaphor in action" international course training, London, UK, July 2012 (Youth in Action programme).
- Youthpass for "My subart is your super Art" international training, Madrid, Spain, April 2012 (Youth in Action programme).
- Youthpass for the "Non-formal education" international training, which took place in Bosnia and Hertegovina, 2011 (Youth in action programme).

- Outstanding performance in strategic communication and non-formal communication (effectively communicated with students with almost no knowledge of the English language).
- Effectively guided and supported groups of students from different parts of Europe and Middle East.
- Working effectively and passionately with "Home fundraising" Southampton, UK.

Free time hobbies:

- poetry
- photography
- debate
- learning languages
- reading
- dogs

Fluent in the following languages:

- Romanian
- Spanish
- English
- Arabic

References available on request