Personal Information

Name: Aya Ali Dakwar

DOB: 17th July 1994

Mobile Number: +971582161014

Nationality: Palestinian

Email:Dakwaraya4@gmail.com

Fluent in English and Arabic

Residency: UAE Residency

Career Objectives:

To secure a job in the computer science industry where I can utilize my knowledge for the organization's growth and developing my technical skills more in a highly motivated IT company.

Qualifications:

- Java
- Microsoft SQL
- .Net
- Data Analysis
- Software management
- Test Driven Development using C#
- Knowledge in Javascript, IOT and Big Data
- Business Development and planning using Scrum agile process
- Documenting and Reporting

Education:

- Bachelor degree in Computer Science at Beirut Arab

  University

- M1 in Management Information System at Lebanese

  University

Personal Skills:

- Innovative thinker and multi-dimensional worker.
- Developing applications among several programming languages.
- Efficient and flexible in team work
- Reporting and documenting skills
- Quick Learner
- Apply changes and finish requirements on time.

Training Experience :

- Training as Android development at Nova4 ,Beirut
- Internship in software quality assurance at Mindfield,Beirut
- Training as telecom software quality assurance engineer at Vanrise Solutions, Beirut
    - Responsibilities:
        - Check client's requirements and the software developed if they match
        - Check if requirements match the worldwide telecom conventions and business rules.
        - Estimate, priotize and plan quality testing activities
        - Create detailed planning testing reports and reporting bugs to the development team
        - Work in coordination with the development team and business managers to find optimal solutions
        - Build automated testing programs using c# and Microsoft sql to test repeated data
        - Ensure that quality specifications are all available.

Work Experience:

- Java developer at Metasoft for Hospital and Health care: From January 2014 until 2018.This experience was at first as a learning experience and then working online with the company on some projects and applications specific to the certain customers.
    - Responsibilities:
        - Learning Java from professional developers and reporting daily
        - Help in designing each phase for the software
        - Identify the requirements and make them clear
        - Develop the technical phase of the software as a teamwork.
        - Recommend to clients changes for better technical solutions and reporting them.
        - Testing and debugging
        - Connecting with APIs

Personal Interests:

- Volunteer at the local organizations and schools for helping people in need.

- Interested in human rights, geopolitics, and human development

- Good in speaking Arabic, English and a little bit German.

- IELTS certificate with band 6 as first time score , with the intention to apply again to get a higher score.