

NOHA EL MIARI

B.A in Television and Film
beirut - Lebanon

PROFILE

I am a passionate, hardworking tv/film graduate specialized in production work through 3 years of experience in student sets and freelancing projects. Gained valuable experience by volunteering in theatre festivals. Worked in couple of multimedia journalism workshops in the digital media team. I'm considered to be very persuasive in terms of making business deals with a great communication skill. I'm a fast-technical learner, who can adapt to any position. I work great under pressure. In my last 3 years of university education I have been able to balance between my studies, university employment in theatre department, volunteering in theater festivals, working on film sets and working in the social media team in different projects. This have made gain valuable experience in three different domains: social media, theatre, production work on film sets. In addition to gained leadership skills from 5 years of serving as a scout leader.
