PROJECTS

CMD — High net bandwidth for online gamers

Built an app that helps in controlling, monitoring and detecting all processes being used by the network's devices. CMD allows admin to set the maximum limit for every connected device, tracks all sites that have been visited by the network's users and see user's net consumption.

Available on the web and mobile applications

PROFILE

Computer science enthusiast thanks to a (long) history of online video gaming. Love to uncover problems & solve them.

Family and friends swear by my ice-breaking and tension-relieving abilities; money-back guaranteed.
