

RANA JBEILY – DOB: 02-10-93

After earning my Computer Science Degree in 2017 from American University of Science & Technology, I entered in the field of programming in different languages, and Digital Marketing. Driven by self-motivation, I take pride in learning something new, I have passion in getting knowledge for my next job availability.

As a developer, my goals include how to handle a business whatever the position is, I find myself UpToDate in any major I choose. In addition to my primary job function, Computer Science has been recognized by Abet accreditation for my extraordinary commitment to programming, I am a Computer Scientist with Front and Backend experience.
