

I'm May, a detail-oriented person who admires minimalism with a galactic touch. I am a passionate problem solver and believe that through design, you can make the improbable attainable. Ensuring clients get what they need is my pivot. Matching feasibility with aesthetical pleasure is how I execute my work. Design is infinite; it is meant to enhance user experience. My colleagues perceive me to be a reliable, hardworking team leader who works with passion and loves learning and encountering unusual challenges.

So, why don't we lift-off?
