EXPERIENCE

Volunteering with Environmental NGOs |

My participation in this environmental activity was cleaning the water stream of Abu-Ali lake and painting its walls.

SKILLS

- Problem-solving: Logical way of approaching different conflicts, and using different resources effectively.
- Critical thinking: Ability to analyze situations in both internal and external environments
- Microsoft office: Handy in using Microsoft office software (Word, PowerPoint, Excel.)
- Multitasking: Can split my attention on more than one task or activity at the same time.
- Leadership: Always ready to motivate and be motivated by a group of people in order to achieve a common goal.
- Communication: Listening, maintaining open body language at majority of times, and choosing the right medium of communication.

ACTIVITIES

Participated several humanitarian activities as in being an active member in NGOs that aim for humanitarian goals for example distributing food packages for areas that suffer from poverty in hometown Tripoli.

Also, launched a few small businesses with my school mates during our high school years (Trading in food stuff groceries, office supplies and opening a small food cart in events).
