EDUCATION

BS in Economics, Lebanese American University (LAU)
2018 – present

Minor in Data Analytics, Lebanese American University (LAU)
2020 – present

As an economics student during a financial crisis in Lebanon, most of my courses were related to the situation happening. This gave me a further deep understanding of my courses. I worked on several research papers concerning the situation using actual data.
As data analytics student, it improved my skills in the field and gave me a different perception on how to analyze data and the ability to make more accurate decisions based on the given parameters

WORK EXPERIENCE

Junior Real Estate Agent, Ray white International
January–June 2019
My tasks involved:
- Screen properties for sale in designated areas
- Consult the sellers on the pricing of their properties after analyzing my market.
- Promote the properties online, connecting the sellers to buyers.
- This experience improved my self-confidence, communication skills and gave me further understanding of how the real estate market works especially in abnormal times (right before the financial crisis).

Catering Bartender, Carre sucre
Summer 2018
This job improved my communication, organization, and multitasking skills. Plus, working well under pressure especially at peak hours.
