Summary

I am a highly motivated and experienced Full-Stack Developer. My domain includes NodeJS, Angular 2+, ReactJS, .NetCore, MSSQL, Bootstrap, JavaScript, HTML and CSS. My languages include English, French, Arabic alongside an advanced skill of business English. My Trilingual ability supports my excellent computer skills, rapid typing, data entry, and highly efficient research and development skills. Microsoft skills widely vary from PowerPoint presentations and Word documents, to formulations on Excel and Microsoft Project. Furthermore, due to my excessive contact with a wide diversity of clients and team members within both the job and out; my communication skills have ameliorated to an extent where I have concluded that maintaining a healthy relationship with the client result in a smooth, professional course of action with positive results. Most importantly, I have dedicated a lot of effort on perfecting my time management skill in which I can meet deadlines with optimal efficiency with time, budget, and resources of a project.
