

Elias Bilen

Mar Yaacoub Street, Elias Bilen Building, Byblos Lebanon

Phone: +961 76 105 705, Email: elias.bilen3@gmail.com

Objective Statement

Gain experience in my field of interest through educational internships and part time jobs where I can apply my engineering knowledge, abilities, and leadership skills. Aiming to attend graduation school.

EDUCATION

Bachelor's in engineering (BE), Electrical Engineering (August 2017 - June 2022).

Lebanese American University, Byblos, Lebanon.

CGPA: 3.19/4

Relevant courses: Power Systems, Electrical Applications, Telecommunications, Microelectronics, Design and Operation of Smart Grids, Reliability Evaluation of Engineering Systems, Computer Networks.

French Baccalaureate and Lebanese Baccalaureate (June 2017).

College Notre Dame de Lourdes - Freres Maristes.

LANGUAGE

Fluent in English, French and Arabic.

Beginner level in German (ongoing learning).

COMPUTER SKILLS

Microsoft Office: Word, PowerPoint, and Excel.

Technical Software: PSpice, AutoCAD, DIALux, Ecodial and MATLAB.

Programming language: Java and Python.

CAREER RELATED EXPERIENCE

Intern at Indevco Unipak Tissue Mill, Halat (August 2021).

- Learned about the machinery and the process of tissue and paper production and assisted engineers in maintenance daily work.

Intern at Middle East Airlines, Beirut (June-July 2021).

- Information Technology (IT) related work: network, data centers, and security.
- MASCO familiarization program: aircraft maintenance and continuity of airworthiness.

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Assistant Director of Training and Education Development in GCLAUMUN (2019-2020).

Volunteer in the International Global Classroom (GCI) MUN in New York (2019).

Trainer in the Global Classrooms Lebanese American University Model United Nations (GCLAUMUN) (2017-2019).

ACHIEVEMENTS

Dean's Distinction List in multiple academic semesters.

Secretary-General Award winner in GCLAUMUN (2016) granting a 50% scholarship at the university.

Elias Bilal