Profile

Passionate about languages, different cultures, communication, knowledge and books. I am currently seeking my second year of translation and interpretation bachelor's degree. For the love and pleasure of languages, I am looking forward to learn about, develop skills in terminology and to explore the secrets of language.

Education

2020 – present Saida, Lebanon	Translation and Interpretation Bachelor degree Lebanese International University-LIU
03/2021 – 08/2021 Rostrevor, Northern Ireland- UK	Discipleship Training School University of the Nations 🔗 The DTS is a 5 month program blending classroom learning, small group activities, personal reflection, practical service and community living.

Professional Experience

2021 – present Beirut, Lebanon	Temporary Translator Foundation for Forgiveness and Reconciliation In Lebanon I am a volunteer in an organization called Foundation for forgiveness and reconciliation and I help translate from Arabic to English for foreign teams.
2021 – present Beirut, Lebanon	Facilitator Teacher College Notre Dame de la delivrance -MSA One of the projects we do in the organization is teaching psychosocial support and the journey to Forgiveness. We help students how to boost their self confidence and overcome their problems.
06/2021 – 08/2021 Durrës, Albania	English teacher Albanian Language Center ALC During my DTS, I had my outreach in Albania and stayed there for 2 months. During my time in this country, I helped with teaching English to some of the Albanian kids and youth.

Organisations

2021 – present Beirut, Lebanon	Foundation for Forgiveness and Reconciliation in Lebanon 🔗 FFRL is a locally led, diverse community of peace-seekers working primarily with the emerging generation in Lebanon. As for me, I help as a facilitator and translator for the schools curriculum and for the peace-building sessions.
