"Why medicine? Why the hard journey? Why go through it all?"
Truth be told, it's not something you can explain in simple terms. It's a very personal dream; a very strong dream. And the desire to help others is unexplainable. I want to pursue the hard journey and go through it all because medicine is a very personal pursuit that lies deep down in my soul. I chose medicine because I can think of no other professional avenue more challenging, rewarding, evolving, and noble.
