

Gheed Jamal El Bizri

20 May 2003, Stanford, California

Mobile no: +1 (650)9247869

Email address:

gheed21@stanford.edu

Objectives

A dedicated person planning to pursue and make use of her interdisciplinary passions to research the relation between Mind, Brain and Mental disorders alongside notable professors.

A highly-responsible, creative and sociable individual in search of a reputable position to gain practical and professional experience in order to leave a positive impact on today's society.

Education

- September 2006 - July 2021 Houssam Eddine Hariri High School (HHHS)
Lebanese Baccalaureate – Life Science

Diplomas

- May 2019 French Language Study Diploma - level B2
- September 2020 TOEFL iBT
- May 2020 Social Psychology Course with honors, offered by Coursera Wesleyan University

Professional Skills

- August 2021 – Present Advisor, essay editor working with Notable Narratives, an organization that offers First Generation and Low Income high school students free college assistance
- 2020-2021 Deputy Secretary General of the 9th HHHS MUN
- 2018-2021 Member of the student council and senior committee
Houssam Eddine Hariri High School
- 2020 Co-author of a book targeted for children to provide them with scientifically correct information and help them find a way to cope with COVID-19
- 2020 – Present Podcast director, podcast host, international officer, writer, content creator in the International department at Foreign Policy Youth Collab
- 2021 – Present Part of the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education Student Advisory Group at Stanford University
- 2021 – Present Staff writer in the Grind section/ Grind Columnist of the Stanford Daily
Head of the event planning committee of the Stanford Mental Health Outreach
- 2022 – Present Outreach
- 2020 – Present President of the Abnormal Psychology Club with 33 members
- 2021 – Present Student Projectionist in the chemistry department at Stanford University
- 2021 – Present Membership Services Associate in Recreation Services at Stanford University
- 2019 – 2020 Vice-President of the 9th HHHS MUN
- 2020 First place in the Innovation Camp - Green Entrepreneurship
(Competition held virtually on a national level)
- 2018 – Present Certified member and eligible trainer of the World Youth Alliance

- 2019 Winner of a scholarship to study philosophy at Cambridge University following an essay competition organized by Immerse Education
- 2019 – Present Ambassador of the Immerse Education Program
- 2013 Winner of the first prize of the Arabic Reading Competition
- 2015 Participant in the "Film Editing" course offered by American University of Beirut
- 2015 – 2019 Participant in educational activities: Theatre Meeting 2015, Corale 2016, Budding Ambassadors 2016, Girls and Maths Day at The Holy Spirit University of Kaslik 2019
- 2015 – Present Volunteer with National organizations: Enta Karim, Dafa, Himaya, Al Ghina

Honors:

- November 2020 First place in the Innovation Camp Award: Green Entrepreneurship
- July 2020 Selected as a member of the Competitive College Club with EDUCATIONUSA- Amideast
- 2020 50% scholarship on tuition fees as I was ranked first in the French section
- 2021-2022 Best article published in the Grind section for the Vol. 260 of
- 2018 Best Delegate Award at the 8th HHHS MUN
- 2018 "Superior Position Paper" at the 14th United Nations Conference on the High School Model of the United Nations GC LAU

Language and Computer Skills

- Computer Skills: Photoshop, Python, Arduino, Filmora, Movie maker, Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, Microsoft Access, PowerPoint
- Languages: English, French, and Arabic