PROFILE

I am currently pursuing the rigorous Bachelor's in Business Administration Program (BBA) at ESA Business School.

I am interested by the various fields that this Program introduces , though I have found myself to be developing a keen interest for marketing, finance and macro economics.

I am on the search for new opportunities to improve my professional knowledge and push me to further develop myself. I am also eager to tackle any challenge that would help me achieve these goals and further develop both my hard and soft skills.
