PROFILE

A junior Full-Stack Web Developer with a foundation in web development, including moderate experience in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. I worked on projects in an intensive boot camp till I got familiar with popular frameworks such as React, Node.js, and Laravel after using MERN and LAMP stacks. Equipped with problem-solving skills and looking forward to learning and growing as a Full-Stack Developer. I'm able to turn any idea or design into a functional website that grabs the user's attention and convince him to use your website.
