Corporate Lawyer

About Me

As an undergraduate law student, my ambition is to evolve into a skilled international lawyer with a strong commitment to justice. I am driven by the desire to correct legal imbalances, advocate for fairness, and provide assistance to those facing challenges. Through rigorous academic pursuits and a genuine passion for the principles of law, I aim to contribute meaningfully to the global legal landscape and make a positive impact on individuals and communities in need.

EXPERIENCE

Aqua spa Beirut

I served as a dedicated Customer Service and Cashier at Aqua Spa Beirut for a rewarding period of two years. In this role, I honed my communication and interpersonal skills, ensuring a seamless and positive experience for spa clients. My responsibilities included handling transactions with accuracy and efficiency, addressing customer inquiries, and maintaining a welcoming atmosphere. This experience has strengthened my ability to thrive in fast-paced environments while delivering exceptional service.

House of brands

I contributed to the success of House of Brands in Cyprus for a year, excelling in the roles of Customer Service and Store Organizer. During this time, I effectively managed customer inquiries, providing tailored assistance and enhancing overall customer satisfaction. Additionally, my responsibilities extended to organizing the store layout, optimizing product placement, and ensuring a visually appealing retail environment. This experience enhanced my organizational and customer service capabilities, further enriching my professional skill set.
