ABOUT ME

I'm Omar El Rawass, Graphic Designer/Video Editor

I'm 21 years old, and currently pursuing my degree, Interior Design, at The Lebanese American University. I've always been drawn to the creative world, which led me to explore both graphic design and video editing. I enjoy experimenting with visuals, color, and motion to create work that feels alive and authentic. Whether it's a poster, a short video, or a full design project, I focus on delivering clean, thoughtful, and visually striking results.
