Ibrahim Dakroub

Beirut, Lebanon | ibrahim_dacroub@hotmail.com | +961 71 567 148 | github: Ibrahim-dk1

Professional Summary

Ambitious Management Information Systems student nearing graduation with a strong foundation in software development and database management. Proven experience in full-stack development technologies, with demonstrated problem-solving abilities and collaborative teamwork skills. Actively seeking an internship opportunity to leverage technical expertise, contribute to innovative projects, and accelerate professional growth in software development.

Education

Lebanese University, Bachelor in Management Information Systems — 2022 – Present

- Expected graduation: 2025 (Currently completing final 2 courses)
- Comprehensive coursework in system analysis, database design, and software development
- Strong academic performance with focus on practical application of theoretical concepts

Riad El Soloh High School, High School Diploma in Sociology and Economics — 2019 – 2022

Technical Skills

Programming Languages: Java, C, C++, C#, JavaScript, TypeScript

Web Development: HTML5, CSS3, TailwindCSS, React.js

Database Technologies: SQL, MySQL

Development Tools: Git, GitHub

Professional Experience

Server, Patchi – Multiple Locations — 2023 – 2025

- Delivered exceptional customer service in high-volume retail environments across multiple Patchi locations
- Developed strong communication and multitasking abilities while managing diverse customer interactions
- Demonstrated reliability and adaptability in fast-paced service-oriented settings

Entrepreneur, Self-Employed – Beirut — 2022 – 2023

- Successfully managed independent business operations selling products through social media platforms and local marketplaces
- Developed digital marketing strategies and customer relationship management skills
- Demonstrated initiative, self-motivation, and business acumen in competitive market environment

Field Volunteer, AVSI – Beirut — 2022 – 2023

- Contributed to the "Back to the Future Initiative" supporting community development projects
- Collaborated with diverse teams to implement field operations and community outreach programs
- Gained valuable experience in project coordination and stakeholder engagement

Data Entry Specialist, InfoPro – Beirut/Hamra — 2022

- Executed data entry operations for UNDP and USAID projects with high accuracy and attention to detail
- Processed and managed large datasets while maintaining strict quality control standards
- Collaborated with international development organizations on critical data management initiatives

Languages

Arabic: Native proficiency

English: Advanced proficiency in speaking and writing

French: Advanced proficiency in speaking and writing

Additional Information

- Passionate about emerging technologies and continuous learning in software development
- Strong analytical and problem-solving abilities with attention to detail
- Excellent team collaboration skills developed through diverse work experiences
- Available for immediate internship opportunities and flexible scheduling