Summary

AI Engineer and Backend Developer with experience building scalable APIs and integrating machine learning and LLM-powered systems into applications. Skilled in Python, PostgreSQL, FastAPI, and machine learning workflows including data preprocessing, model training, and deployment. Currently working on AI systems involving deep learning, computer vision, and LLM-based architectures. Please check my GitHub profile for additional projects and implementations.

Experience

AI Engineer Intern CT Vision

Feb 2026 – Present | Beirut, Lebanon

- Developing machine learning and AI applications including NLP and computer vision models
- Working on data preprocessing, feature engineering, and model experimentation
- Implementing AI pipelines and integrating models with backend APIs
- Building AI solutions using Python, deep learning frameworks, and ML libraries

Software Developer XpertBot — Beirut, Lebanon Apr 2024 – Sep 2024

- Developed and deployed 3 e-commerce applications
- Built backend APIs using ASP.NET Core and SQL databases
- Implemented secure authentication using JWT
- Worked with Git, Postman, SSH, and REST APIs
