PROFILE

I'M Ahmad Gharib, i have just completed my bachelor degree in MIS (Management Information Systems) at the Lebanese University - faculty of Business and Economics. I am self motivated and looking forward to work on real life projects in practice. My ability to work under pressure has allowed me to stay calm when faced with deadlines. Constantly planning my work in advance and setting my self daily targets in order to keep on top of the varying work load set for each module.
